

So you want to go to the JAAT?

Joe Rosenthal Theater, Southgate Road, appears in most GPS systems. To get to the Theater from Southgate Road, however, would entail jumping the fence and being detained by security, which might delay your arrival at the JAAT. Instead, go through the gate on Southgate Road and find legal parking, using this handy guide in conjunction with your GPS device.

Continuing from the GATE on Southgate Road, the Marine Exchange is immediately on your left. The first available right turn is Northeast Road, which comes to a T at Hobson Drive, which runs along the edge of Arlington National Cemetery. The Theater ✖ is to the right at the end of Hobson Drive.

Great, but where can I park?

P1 parking, in front of the Theater, will be reserved for guest speakers.

P2 parking, along the brick wall at the edge of the cemetery, is open to all.

P3 parking, in the Marine Exchange garage, is also convenient.
