Jobs for JAGs

September 21, 2010

Please join the Pentagon Chapter of the Federal Bar Association on Tuesday, September 21, 2010 for our annual “Jobs for JAGs” seminar at the Army Navy Country Club in Arlington, VA. This full-day event is designed for both junior and senior military attorneys transitioning from active duty to civilian or government practice.

Hear several panels of top attorneys from state and U.S. government agencies, as well as from private practice and non-profits, share tips and insights on finding employment. Nearly all of the panelists are retired or former Judge Advocates and they will share advice on selling your skills as a JAG.

Highlights include:

- Lunch keynote: MG William K. Suter, USA (Ret.), currently serving as the 19th Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States
- Representatives from the Military Officers Association of America (MOAA)
- Advice on resumes, cover letters, and interviewing tips and techniques
- Partners at large and medium-size law firms
- Solo practitioners
- Government attorneys, including:
 - Department of Justice
 - Department of Defense
 - Department of State
 - Department of Homeland Security
- Former JAGs working in the non-profit and academic sectors

The event is co-sponsored by the Judge Advocates Association* and Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P.
Dress: Business Attire Suggested
